PUBLIC EMPLOYMENT
RELATIONS BOARD

ORDER

On August 7, 2000, the Public Employment Relations Board issued a Decision on Review in the above-captioned matter, in which it determined that the State had failed to establish just cause for George Carruthers' demotion. That decision is incorporated herein by this reference, as though fully set forth.

The parties were ordered to meet with a representative of the Board to formulate the appropriate and precise terms of a remedy for the unlawful demotion. The Board retained jurisdiction of the matter in order to receive evidence on the precise remedy should the parties fail to reach agreement thereon, and to enter whatever orders might be necessary or appropriate to address any remedy-related matters. Following a number of continuances, a hearing before the Board on the appropriate remedy was scheduled for February 14, 2001.

On February 6, 2001, Carruthers filed a "Notice of Withdrawal" of his appeal, indicating that a settlement had been reached by the parties. Thus, it is unnecessary for the Board to receive evidence or otherwise address further any remedy-related matters. Accordingly, we issue the following:

ORDER

The hearing previously scheduled in this matter for February 14, 2001 is cancelled and the case is considered closed. This order constitutes final agency action in this matter.

Dated at Des Moines, Iowa, the 8th day of February, 2001.
